Work of Preparing for Consolidated Chamber of Commerce Progresses

That the scheme for a consolidated Chamber of Commerce along the lines followed by some of the more progressive cities of the mainland is practical and should be carried into effect here, is the opinion of the sub-committee appointed some months ago to consider the matter and frame a constitution and by-laws for such a body. This committee, consisting of L. Tenney Peck, E. E. Paxton, Walter Dillingham and J. R. Galt, has been working for months on the plans for such a chamber of commerce, and according to a statement made this morning by Mr. Tenney Peck, is ready to report to the main committee appointed at the dinner given at the University Club last Spring.

In speaking of the matter this morning, Mr. Tenney Peck said that the sub-committee, of which he is the chairman, has been going over the plans of the chambers of commerce in such cities as Cleveland, Rochester, Seattle, Portland, Toledo and Boston, and that they have, in framing the by-laws and constitution of the proposed local combined chamber of commerce, adopted many of the best features of all the plans they have investigated. The work of the sub-committee has been delayed by the difficulty in securing data, and by the absence of the chairman in the East on other business. It has been materially assisted, said Mr. Tenney Peck by H. Gooding Field whose familiarity with the subject enabled him to point out to the members of the sub-committee where they could obtain the information they were seeking.

Just when the main committee on the formation of the consolidated chamber of commerce for Honolulu will meet again has not been decided, but it will be soon, and the plans outlined by the sub-committee will be laid before it at that meeting, and the further steps to be taken considered.

'EARTHQUAKE' IS NAUGHT BUT BLASTING!

Another delusion of excited imagination was shattered this morning when the earthquakes reported for several days past with alarming frequency were found not to be of volcanic origin at all. They were earthquakes all right, but the quake was confined to Honolulu, and the origin thereof is down in the harbor, where an entirely harmless bit of dredging is going on.

All the feverish reports that have poured into the newspaper offices have been caused by this harbor dredging, it appears. Nobody was really excited over the reports, anyway, except some of the superstitious ones who feared that Honolulu might get a black eye if the news went abroad that there were mutterings of the earth here. The earthquake was taken as a joke, but it seems to have been a bigger joke than some people thought.

Inquiry at Waipahu, Wahiawa, Waiakua and many points failed to scare up even a scent of the earthquake story, so evidently those visitors who have been sitting up nights waiting for a shock so they could write back home and tell how it felt might as well go to sleep, for nothing is going to happen unless a powderman on "the front" gets unusually extravagant with his giant powder.

Cup'd's Friends Talk of Strong Opposition to Governor in Washington

(Special Star-Bulletin Cable)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 4.—Carrying out his expressed desire, President Taft today sent to the senate the reappointment of Governor Walter F. Frear. At the same time, he sent to the senate the reappointment of Secretary of the Territory E. A. Mott-Smith.

C. S. ALBERT.

There was a hearty burst of applause from the sugar planters this morning, when President Joseph P. Cooke, before calling the meeting to order, announced that the Star-Bulletin had received a cablegram stating that President Taft had reappointed Governor Frear and Secretary Mott-Smith.

News that the President had forwarded to the senate the nomination of Governor Frear and Secretary Mott-Smith to succeed themselves in their present offices was received here this morning just before Prince Cup'd sailed for the mainland on the Watson liner Wilhelmina. The Delegate was too rushed, however, to make any statement regarding the matter.

His friends however were not so reticent. One of them, who has been in constant touch with the Prince, declared that Kuhio has purposely deferred his departure for Washington in order that "no one could say he was in the east fighting Frear's re-appointment."

U. S. GRAND JURY WOULD DEPORT VICE-PARASITES

Suggests That Government Take a Hand in Cleaning Out the Restricted District of Honolulu by Shipping Lowest Element Back to Dai Nippon, Says Detailed Report

A report that the Federal Grand Jury, which adjourned Monday until January 26 has recommended the deportation of a score of the Japanese men who are said to be living upon the earnings of the women in the Iwilei resorts reached the Star-Bulletin this morning. The report does not come from Grand Jury sources and this paper has been unable to verify it through any of the customary channels.

The report was circumstantial, giving names and alleged facts. In brief it was to the effect that after considering the testimony submitted regarding the conditions alleged to be prevailing in the district, the jury returned suggestions, calling upon the Federal immigration authorities to take up the matter at once and rid the city of a number of the more depraved and influential of the male inhabitants of the underworld.

R. L. Halsey, inspector in charge of the Federal Immigration Station, made the statement this morning that he had received no communication as yet from the grand jury in regard to the deportation of the twenty Japanese undesirable. He said further that at present there are no Japanese in Honolulu who are subject to the deportation law, so far as he knows.

GREAT YACHT RACE ASSURED COAST TO HAWAII THE PLAN

Rules will be Framed To Give Islands a Square Deal

(Associated Press Cable)
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—It was announced here today that while the commander of the yacht which will carry San Francisco's colors in the San Francisco-Honolulu race, in 1915 will devote upon the broad shoulders of W. F. Stone, well known in yachting circles here, no one has been as yet selected to design the boat.

Mail advices from San Francisco this morning indicate that the San Francisco-Honolulu ocean yacht race, proposed for 1915, is an assured fact. Sir Thomas Lipton, Britain's premier yachtsman, has definitely promised to build a new Shamrock to compete in the blue-ribbon event planned for California waters in the exposition year, and it is almost certain that the rules and measurements will be so framed that the yachts competing in this event will be staunch enough to cross the Pacific on the long run to Hawaii.

Before Sir Thomas left the Coast, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Hawaii had swung into line with promised entries for the trans-Pacific race, and if four yachts cross the starting line, the event will be of international interest. However, it is

Indignant Citizens Hear Sentence Passed On Offender

Cathcart Enters Denial in Court to 'Public Be Damned' Story This Morning

With more than a score of prominent men and women of Honolulu attending the proceedings, Edward McCarriston, a well-known young man of this city, pleaded guilty in Judge Robinson's court this morning to a charge of fornication and was given the limit sentence, a fine of fifty dollars and costs.

The other charge against McCarriston, that of trespass, was dropped, the prosecuting attorney, John W. Cathcart, declaring that under the circumstances surrounding the case no jury in the world would find the prisoner guilty of trespass. Evidence in the case previously taken had brought out statements that the Hawaiian girl with whom McCarriston was guilty of misconduct had communi-

Tarn McGrew Host In Paris At Freak Party For Some Queer Personages

Tarn McGrew is "going some" in Paris, according to an Associated Press dispatch from the gay French city on November 23. Says the dispatch:

"Tarn McGrew of the Franco-American Bank, Place Vendome and Honolulu, has demonstrated that he is the most accommodating host in Paris by reason of his having entertained six most unsophisticated people from Lyons. McGrew recently inherited a handsome fortune and somewhat previously a lesser one from his wife, formerly Mrs. Scott Grant, sister-in-law of the Countess of Essex. Business took him to Lyons, where he was greatly delighted with the accomplishments of his cab driver. The latter, growing confidential, confided to McGrew that he was about to marry.

ated with him prior to his coming to the home where she was staying while out on probation from the reform school.

The case this morning was marked not only by the attendance of prominent people and the deep interest taken in the case, but by sharp exchanges of personalities between Attorney Cathcart and Attorney Wade Warren Thayer. An article in the morning paper, stating that Cathcart yesterday had declared, "The public be damned!" In discussing the agreement for McCarriston to plead guilty, was asserted by Cathcart to have been inspired by Thayer. The article in question said that Thayer had asked Cathcart why he, the prosecuting officer, agreed that McCarriston should be allowed to plead guilty to the lesser charge. In his address to the court this morning, Cathcart de-

MUSCOVITE HURLS DEFIANCE AT KAISER

Leading Government Organ In St. Petersburg Prints Defiant Article In Answer To German Chancellor's Warning That His Nation Is Ready To "Draw The Sword" In Defense Of Austria-Serbs Are Summoning All Capable Of Bearing Arms In The Country—European Crisis Growing Momentarily More And More Acute And The Outlook For Peace Less And Less Hopeful

(Associated Press Cable)
LONDON, Dec. 4.—The international crisis, for a time thought to be lessening, has again assumed proportions of the most alarming character. Dispatches from Sofia received here this morning announce that Serbia is summoning every available citizen capable of bearing arms, to meet the massing of Austrian troops just across the border from Belgrade. The government, it is said, has appealed to Russia and the Czar's ministers have answered that they are prepared to back the Serbs in any conflict with the Dual Monarchy that may arise.

Other dispatches received by the Foreign office report that Russia is in a highly inflamed state against what St. Petersburg chooses to consider the aggression of Austria-Hungary against Serbia. The feeling against Germany is reported as being particularly intense. The leading government organ, the Novoe Vremya, in a leading article, evidently inspired, says this morning in answer to the "warning" addressed to Russia by the German chancellor that "such threats as those uttered from the Kaiser's minister will have no intimidating effect upon any one who knows the condition of the German army and the absurdity of her claims. Russian diplomatic policy cannot be driven to fanthearted retreat by any such intimidations."

Other St. Petersburg papers, apparently equally inspired by official sources, demand that the government of Russia withdraw from the German banks the huge sums of money which are being held there, and that the Czar's ministers hasten "preparations for what now appears to be the inevitable conflict."

TURKS MUST GO HUNGRY

SOFIA, Bulgaria, December 4.—The terms of the armistice between the Allies and the Turks, which were signed yesterday afternoon provides that the Turks must leave the beleaguered garrisons of their fortresses still in their hands alone until after the final settlement of the peace terms. No revictualing of fortifications or detached bodies of troops will be permitted, and the armies must retain their present positions pending peace negotiations.

These negotiations will begin in London, December 13. All of the Allies will participate, Greece having waived her objections with the granting of her terms.

RAVAGES AMONG EUCALYPTUS IS DUE TO FUNGUS, NOT DROUGHT

Scientist Tells Planters Folly to Continue Present System of Planting

That it is not drought but a fungus disease which has caused and is causing the death of eucalyptus trees on Tantalus and elsewhere, Harold L. Lyon, pathologist of the planters' experiment station, made plain to the convention of sugar planters this morning.

Dr. Lyon had exhibits to illustrate his address, in the form of sections of trees, infested branches and leaves, etc., and he was listened to with great interest, as was evidenced at the close of his set remarks by the many questions asked him. He spoke briefly also on the striped disease in cane, supplementary to an address last year and articles he had contributed to the Planters' Record on that subject.

A Horner, chairman of the committee on forestry, was called on, "appropriately," as President Cooke remarked, after the discussion, to read the report of that committee.
